

✓ Anti Slavery meeting in Hingham

27th

The quarterly meeting of the Plymouth County A. S. Society will be held in the Baptist Meeting House in Hingham on Thursday Nov. 4th — Mr. L. Garrison, John A. Collins, Frederick Douglass, and perhaps Wendell Phillips will be present — Several topics of great interest & importance will be discussed, and we trust some decisive measures taken for the advancement of the Cause — Let all attend who can. The meeting will commence precisely at one o'clock P. M. and occupy the afternoon & evening. Wm. T. Biggs — Sec. Saml. J. May — Pres.

Mr. Garrison -

Mr. May has requested that the meeting be held here - We shall do what we can to make ^{it} ~~the~~ a pleasant one - Will you mention it in the paper of this week that this change has been made, and then there will be no misunderstanding - We shall endeavor to accommodate our friends as well as we can, and I hope you will invite any that you may think proper - You will find a welcome in many of our families and if you do not have a particular invitation from some particular friend, you will find my house at your service -

Yours truly

Sirius Lincoln

Hingham Oct 26. 1844.

To Mr. L. Garrison
The printer of the Liberator.